GUIDANCE

All Affidavits, Powers of Attorney, etc. will be neatly typed and drawn on plain paper

- The attestation service is provided to Indian citizens. Documents submitted by other nationals will be attested only if the document is required to be submitted for a transaction in India or it originates from India. In the case of US nationals, their signatures should be first got attested by the Authentication Division in the State Department before submission of attestation at the Consulate. Other nationals should get their signature on the document attested first by their respective Embassy/Consulate
- All Affidavits will be drawn on plain paper. The affidavits will be notarized by a public notary and bear signatures, name and addresses of two witnesses before they are submitted to the Consulate for attestation
- The Power of Attorney to be attested by the Consulate should be typed on a plain paper and not on a Stamp Paper from India. The Consulate does not provide any Stamp Paper nor is it empowered to attest documents drawn on a Stamp Paper.
- All Powers of Attorneys have to be attested / notarized by a Public Notary before they are submitted to the Consulate.
- All Powers of Attorneys should carry signatures and addresses of 2 (two) witnesses.
- If you are obliged to execute the Power of Attorney on a Stamp Paper from India, then please follow the 'Apostille' Convention. Once the 'Apostille' sticker is affixed to the Power of Attorney, the Consulate is not required to authenticate the Power of Attorney again.
- The Consular Officer reserves the right to accept or reject attestation of documents the contents of which are objectionable or contrary to the Rules.
